2022 Cradle Coast Local Government School-based Apprenticeship Opportunities

Ready to kick off your career, but not sure where to start?
Have you considered local government?
One industry with endless possibilities!

A career in local government offers exciting roles, various pathways, and fosters a solid foundation while providing a head start in your career through an Australian School-based Apprenticeship (ASbA).

ASbAs allow high school students in years 10, 11 and 12 to gain valuable work experience, achieve a national recognised qualification while completing a Tasmanian Certificate of Education (TCE) the highest level of senior secondary certificate awarded in Tasmania.

With approximately 41% of the current local government workforce set to retire over the next 10 years within the Cradle Coast region, the doors are open for the next generation to explore local government as a rewarding long term career path.

Commencing early 2022, the following positions are currently being recruited:

Devonport City Council

- Administration Apprentice (Human Resources / Works)
- Collections Curatorial Registrar Apprentice (Regional Art Gallery & Maritime Centre)

Central Coast Council

- Childcare Apprentice

West Coast Council

- Governance Apprentice

Circular Head Council

- Customer Service Apprentice (Corporate and Governance)
- Civil Construction Apprentice
- Customer Service Apprentice (Tourism)
- Horticulture Apprentice

Cradle Coast Authority

- Administration Apprentice

Successful applicants will spend between 7.5 – 15 hours per week in the work environment for a duration of 12 - 24 months depending on the qualification, getting paid during this time.
