

Cradle Coast Local Government Australian School-based Apprenticeship (ASbA) Program

It's never too early to start thinking about a career in local government - it offers exciting roles and career pathways. CCA's Local Government ASbA Program will give you a head start in your career.

DID YOU KNOW, LOCAL GOVERNMENT EMPLOYS AROUND 800 PEOPLE ACROSS OUR REGION?

- CCA's Member Councils are looking to provide more jobs for young people in our region.
- Councils offer an exciting range of careers which are vital for the community.
- Our program aims to help Councils identify and create opportunities for young people in local government and will coordinate placement of ASbAs.
- Participants starting off as a School-based Apprentice can go on to have long, rewarding careers making a difference in our community.
- The local government workforce is ageing and will experience significant turnover within the next 10 years.
- Many roles in local government require VET qualifications.

Key dates:
